BOWLING GREEN, KENTUCKY

May 28 to June 2

1928

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, believing that the true standard for measuring the greatness of the City is the loyalty of its citizens, and,

WHEREAS, believing that this loyalty has placed our City among the foremost in our State and Nation in civic accomplishments, and,

WHEREAS, believing that the highest development of this civic loyalty will result in the more active promotion of all civic enterprises, in which every citizen gives willingly of his intelligence, his courage, his initiative and his time, every man doing his share;

THEREFORE, I, A. Scott Hines, Mayor of the City of Bowling Green, Kentucky, do hereby set aside the week of May 28th to June 2nd, 1928, as "CIVIC WEEK," and earnestly ask that each Bowling Green citizen during that week make every effort, both as an individual, and as a member of any civic organization to which he may belong, to promote that civic loyalty which makes for public welfare.

I furthermore urge that every citizen of Bowling Green attend the programs given during Civic Week, and invite the citizenship of Warren County, of this District, and of all Kentucky, to attend the instructive, historic, pageant of Kentucky to be given in Bowling Green during Civic Week.

Done in my office in Bowling Green, Kentucky, this twenty-third day of May, 1928.

A. S. HINES,
Mayor of the City of Bowling Green.
